

Principles and rules

Delivery only during opening hours. Please do not drop your things off in front of the shop!

Delivered things need to be clean und functioning. If possible, please sort the things yourself.

Please only bring seasonal goods.

You will have to clean after yourself and you will have to take good care of the things.

Let users unpack calmly. Don't reach inside other's bags.

Any goods taken along are only for your own use. NO resale!

For any goods you take, bags etc. have to be brought.

Because of the small shop size, the number of people and the length of your stay can be restricted.

The „Umsonstladen Dresden“ is not liable for damages occurring as a result of defective products or defective technical devices.

Everyone who uses the „Umsonstladen Dresden“ agrees to the principles and rules.

We wish for a friendly and appreciative way of dealing with each other regardless of heritage, religion, skin colour, sex or sexual orientation!

Whether you bring or take something, with the help of your donation you can ensure the existence of our shop. This is also feasible through a rent-sponsorship or through becoming a permanent donor.

Old things are no waste!
